How would a Master’s Degree help you?

In today’s competitive climate, having a Master’s Degree can set you apart from the crowd, boost your earning potential and advance your career.

Judaic Studies teachers from around the world are registering for Herzog College's new English-language MA degree in "Teaching Tanakh and Parshanut", commencing Fall 2024. The first cohort will enjoy an introductory price of 31,000 NIS (approx $8,000) for two years of tuition.

The courses are designed to deepen your understanding of Tanakh, broaden your perspective on Jewish history, and enhance your teaching skills, and will be taught by experts from Herzog College and teachers with real-world classroom experience., including Dr. Yael Ziegler, Rabbi Dr. Daniel Reiser, Dr. Yosefa Fogel Wruble, Rabbi Dr. Yehuda Tropper, Rabbi Dr. Eli Kohn, and Rabbi Shmuel Feld.

Some schools are taking this opportunity to invest in their Limmudei Kodesh teachers and offer scholarships for members of their Kodesh staff. Why not suggest it to your head of department or principal?
